Zug, 13.05.2012

Our company, Transcontinental Services AG has closely worked together with Testa Communications Sp. z o.o. realizing the FIS World Cup in Ski Jumping in Zakopane 2012 including nationwide promotion.

Testa Communications was responsible among others for nationwide informational and promotional campaign that consists of advertisement and public relations activities, TV production preparation, radio production preparation, media plan and media buying.

We are very satisfied by the way Testa Communication has realized all mutual promotional targets. The media response has by far exceeded our expectations.

We can recommend Testa Communications Sp. z o.o. and its services to all its future partners. We are convinced and sure that the Agency will fulfill all the given tasks in a most professional way. The Team of Testa Communications is a group of engaged professionals who conveniently react to all the requests and demands.

We wish you all the best in your further activities!
